

TCI donates 6 houses to flood victims at Nimoo

KT NEWS SERVICE

LEH, July 21: The Tourism Minister Nawang Rigzin Jora today inaugurated and handed over the keys of 6 newly constructed houses to the flood affected families of Nimoo village who were extensively suffered during last year flood. These houses were constructed and donated by the Transport Corporation of India Ltd. at a cost of Rs: 5.5 lacs each houses.

On this occasion, the Chief Executive Councilor, Rigzin

Spalbar and the Maganing Director Transport Corporation of India Ltd. DP Aggarwal and Councilor ZNimoo Steering Norbu also present.

Jora extended gratitude to Aggarwal and his team for extending whole hearted supports to the suffering people in this hour of crisis and hoped further supports from Transport Corporation of India in rehabilitation of other suffering people.

The CEC, Rigzin Spalbar on behalf of the people of Ladakh extended thanks for their goodwill gesture and said that their assistance have helped rehabilitation of 6 severely hit families of Nimoo village.

Later, the Minister also inaugurated a Community Hall at Nimoo which was constructed by the Rural Dev. Deptt. at a cost of Rs: 30.22 lacs.

On this occasion, the CEC, LAHDC, Rigzin Spalbar, Executives Councilors, Sonam Dorjey, Gyurmet Drone, Dr. Sonam Wangchok, Managing Director, Transport Corporation of India, Aggarwar and his team, Councilor Halqa tsering Norbu, Panchayat members, Nambardar and villagers, Women Alliance of the village also attended and presented a colourful cultural programme.

Jora congratulated the people of Nimoo for having a good Community Center and urged for maintaining the hall. He said that a Cafeteria under tourism sector is coming at the confluence point of Indus and River Zanskar at Nimoo which would be handed over to the villagers for generating income.